We believe

... in people ... in our community ... in responsibility

At The Middlefield Banking Company we have always operated on the principle that the best way to help someone is to believe in them. We have confidence in convictions, we share in dreams and we trust in promises made. We appreciate every customer we have.

In return we offer convenience, technology, experience, and security for your money. You can always expect to be treated with respect, and you have our word we will never take you for granted. So, please put us to the test and you will see what thousands of our friends already know ... we are dedicated to your future!

why choose a community bank like the middlefield banking company?

A banking relationship is important and no one takes it lightly. So what makes mb different and why should you change banks?

Service and security are what we offer, and our key principles of operation say a lot about how we do it. We value customers above all, and believe in honoring them with respect, dignity and concern.

Honesty and efficiency are the hallmarks of how we work with customers. We employ ethical principles, keep our promises and try to always do the right thing. We train our staff to be proactive, always working to meet and exceed customer expectation.

If these things are as important to you as they are to us, we think we're the bank for you! Our 100+ years of experience with the same name and steadfast customer loyalty make us think we're right. We welcome your business and hope to earn your loyalty, too.
